WU, OSSO Get Improvement Appropriations

Wilberforce university is scheduled to receive a total of $1,744,779 and the OSSO home, Xenia, $1,969,933 in two-year appropriations from the ninety-seventh general assembly which completed its current session Sunday morning.

Of Wilberforce's total, $596,545 was awarded in the additions and betterments bill and $1,148,234 in the budget appropriations measure.

The OSSO home's allocation includes $600,000 under the additions and betterments measure and $1,369,933 from the budget appropriation. The $600,000 was the only item in the legislature's capital improvements program which was approved as an emergency grant, making it available immediately. This was earmarked for two children's cottages, an auditorium, recreational building, electric shop and new tunnels and lines from the home's power plant to the cottages.

Only a skeleton session of the assembly is planned Wednesday afternoon to sign bills passed Saturday night and early Sunday before it adjourns sine die June 30.

In action taken by the legislators at the final session, Ohio cities were the recipients of a new $2,500,000 state subsidy for highway use passed in the separate-amended $123,000,000 capital improvement program. The grant to cities was added while the sub-

Jackets to Put Team on Field This Summer

Cedarville college will open its summer basketball season on Saturday, it has been announced by Coach Mendell E. Beattie.

The opener is tentatively scheduled with a team from Hamilton and if the arrangements go through the game will be called at 2:30.

Coach Beattie is planning on a full schedule for the Yellow Jackets this summer and has numerous independent teams throughout this part of the state for games, but as yet a complete schedule has not been completed. The complete schedule will be announced in this Herald within the next few weeks.

The majority of the team will be made up from those who played during the regular season with the Jackets. Coach Beattie has stated, "With a good part of the team from last spring going to summer school, and several other members of the team living in or close to Cedarville, we decided that it would give the boys a lot of valuable experience for next spring."

Only members of the spring team that are not available for this summer are Birdie McNulty, who graduated; Ben McNulty, not in school this summer; and Harold Farmer, who also is not enrolled for the summer session of the college.

New A. W. Agent Is Named at Xenia Meeting

In an effort to aid rural electrification in the Miami valley, the Dayton Adequate Wiring bureau has announced the appointment of Robert L. Pierce as field representative who will work from the bureau's new headquarters in Xenia. In providing residential and farmstead wiring advice to citizens of Xenia and the surrounding territories, especially Wilmington and Washington, O., the non-profit bureau hopes to contribute toward improving rural electrification. Recently, the bureau had expanded its service from Dayton to West Alexandria. Pierce's appointment came during a recent dinner at Ceyler's restaurant in Xenia, at which the bureau was host to electrical contractors from Cedarville, South Charleston, Jamestown, Waynesville, Spring Valley, and Xenia.

In the course of the evening, the group appointed Ernest Smith, Springfield, Valley, and Wayne as the Dayton Adequate Wiring bureau's representatives in their respective communities.

Fess Quail Bill Dies in Senate

The long-debated quail bill, a perennial problem of the state legislature, once again failed to make the grade as the senate adjourned Saturday leaving behind a welter of bills which fell along the wayside.

The measure, which would remove quail from the song bird list and put it back among the game bird list, was introduced in the house by Rep. Lowell Fess, R. Greene. It sailed through that body by an overwhelming majority several days ago.

Many other bills and proposals were killed outright or were side-tracked during the final deliberations of the assembly.

Wright View Council Accepts Surrender Move

A petition calling for a special election in Wright View to decide whether the war-born community south of Patterson Field should surrender its village charter and revert to control of Bath township was accepted Saturday night by the town council at a special meeting.

Mayor Harry E. Hodge, at the regular council meeting last Monday night, had refused to accept the same petition, because a quorum of the six-member council was not present.

However, four of the councilmen appeared for the special meeting Saturday evening in the council chamber—a defense cabin adjoining the mayor's residence. They were Mrs. Stella Rhoades, Thomas Lewis, Ted Easterly and Elwood Linden. Absentees were Ray Fannin and James Burris.

A few minutes after council convened, while group of curious citizens stood by, two Osborn attorneys, Morris D. Rice and James Matthews, arrived to represent the petitioners.

Dissatisfaction over the poor conditions of roads in the Wright View area, alleged "Gestapo" tactics of the village marshals and resentment against mayor are said to be among reasons for the requested change in the village status.

Jack Patrickoff, Dayton attorney for the council, who checked validity of the 191 signatures on the petition before any further action is taken by the council. He suggested some petitioners signed their names in the belief they were asking only for better roads.

The Wright View village struggle over its sovereignty moved into court Wednesday.

Led by Mayor Harry E. Hodge, five members of the town council signed a petition filed in common pleas court seeking a declaratory judgment and injunctive relief against Rev. H. P. Morgan, alleged leader of a group which seeks to have the war-born community surrender its three-year-old charter and revert to the control of Bath township. C. Bell, Sherwood Kelly and Arthur Witt were also named defendants.

The action charges that a petition submitted to and accepted by the council last Saturday night, calling for a special election to decide Wright View's future status, does not accurately represent the village's citizens.

It intimates that names, in some instances, were signed to the petition through ignorance of its objective.

The council petition seeks to have the court declare on the validity of the Morgan group's petition in seeking the special balloting.

Showdown Expected at Wilberforce

A showdown between the state and the African Methodist Episcopal church in the dismissal of Dr. Charles H. Wesley as president of Wilberforce university and the election of Dr. Charles Leander Hill as his successor was expected Thursday when the state's nine-member trustee board meets in annual session at the university.

The Herald was printed before the meeting was adjourned. The board, whose membership includes five state appointees and four churchmen, giving the state a slight voting edge, will convene at 10 a. m. in the home economics building on the university campus.

C. C. Jenkins, superintendent of the state departments, said Wednesday all nine members are expected for the session.

Ray E. Hughes, Columbus lawyer, is chairman. Other state members are Mrs. Margaret E. Barnes, Oberlin, vice chairman; Rev. Wilbur A. Page, Cincinnati, secretary; Rev. J. Welby Broadus, Dayton, and M. C. Clarke, Cleveland. Church representatives are Bishop R. C. Ransom, Wilberforce, chairman of the board; Rev. Charles S. Spivey and Rev. Joseph Gomez, all of Cleveland.

When Dr. Wesley was removed as president last week, he retired to the refuge of the state branch on the grounds that his election as president was a joint action by both boards. A restraining order on behalf of the church board was issued Saturday to prevent him from making any use of the university property, supplies or land.

Meanwhile, two summer schools were in operation Wednesday at the university. As of Tuesday night, 165 students were enrolled for the ten weeks' summer session in the college of education and industrial arts. Dr. Wesley set up this school after he moved his office from Shorter hall and established a new office in Bundy hall.

Enrollment in the ten weeks' summer session of the college of liberal arts and sciences, on the university-controller's grounds, was 127 Tuesday night. Sessions opened Tuesday in this school and classes convened Wednesday in the state-controlled school.

Ask $15,000 in Damage Action In Fatal Accident

A $75,000 damage suit has been filed in common pleas court by the administrator of the estate of a Columbus youth who was injured fatally in a traffic accident near Xenia last fall.

The petitions lists Walter E. Harshany, plaintiff, with John Grail, of Fairview village, a Cleveland suburb, Ralph Harshany, 2923 West 16th street Cleveland, and Walter C. Allison, 460 West Cherry, Columbus, as defendants.

According to the petition, Walter J. Harper, 25, an occupant of Allison's car, was killed when it struck a parked truck which Grail and Harshany had rented, on Route 42, about two miles east of Xenia, on November 21, 1946.

The petition charges that operators of the truck failed to post warning signals around the stalled vehicle as required by state law. It claims that Allison who was driving the car in which Harper was riding, was guilty of speeding and careless operation.

At the time of the accident, Harshany said he was unfamiliar with the signal light equipment on the vehicle which was rented from a U-Drive-It concern. Allison was said to have confirmed Harshany's statement that he was about twenty-five feet behind the disabled truck and attempting to flag down the oncoming Columbus car.

Explain New Guidance Plan For U. S. Army

1st Sgt. Merle A. Pridoux, Jr. of the U. S. army recruiting station, Xenia, explains some of the provisions of the new tentative career guidance plan for enlisted men warrant officers of the new modern army.

The scope of the plan is to build a broadly qualified, well rounded noncommissioned and warrant officers corps which in time of emergency will provide a trained cadre for mobilization and which will augment the regular army officers corps.

The elements of the plan are:

1. A determination of what jobs are necessary for the army to accomplish with proper standards and grades for each job.
2. A training system for qualifying personnel to fill each job.
3. First pay grade—Master sergeant (first sergeant and sergeant major are retained as occupation titles).
4. Second pay grade—senior sergeant (platoon sergeant is retained as occupation title).
5. Third pay grade—sergeant first class.
6. Fourth pay grade—sergeant.
7. Fifth pay grade—corporal.
8. Sixth pay grade—private first class.
9. Seventh pay grade—private.

In conjunction with the above rates, all technician ratings and chevrons are to be abolished, technicians to integrate into the appropriate pay grade and title. Also combat commanders of noncommissioned officers grades will wear a distinctive insignia of a forest green strip fastened to the shoulder loop of the uniform in addition to the insignia of grade or rank.

Sgt. Pridoux also states: the war department is seeking legislation to authorize four grades of warrant officers in the army as follows:

1. Chief warrant officer—pay of officer in fourth pay period.
2. Senior warrant officer—pay of officer in third pay period.
3. Warrant officer first class—pay of officer in second pay period.
4. Warrant officer—pay of officer in first pay period.

Under the provisions of the career guidance plan examinations will be given for each step in rank from a corporal on up, assuring only those qualified will be entitled to the job and rank.

There is much more of interest about the tentative career guidance plan for warrant officers and enlisted men contained in war department circular number 118, and any one interested in learning more about this new deal for enlisted men can contact Sgt. Pridoux or Cpl. Considine at the Xenia, recruiting station. They will be glad to explain how you can have an interesting tour of duty with the new scientific U. S. army.

He further states that taxes may be paid at the county treasurer's office until July 20 without penalty.

$92,000 Damages Asked in Five Accident Suits

Seeking more than $92,000 in damages, five separate suits have been filed in common pleas court against a Dayton man as a result of an auto accident last November in which two persons were killed.

Plaintiff in the actions is Ocie Gashio, Trebein, guardian aunt of two survivors of the crash and as administratrix of the estate of Herbert O. Rife, 39, who was killed with his wife, Mary 36, in the collision on Dayton pike, Lucas Hill about two and a half miles west of Xenia.

The petitions all charging Huey H. Murphy, 20 Dayton, driver of the second car, with speeding and careless operation, seek $85,000 in the death of Mr. Rife, $20,000 because of his wife's death, $16,455.37 for injuries to Deiores, 14, $10,464.06 for injuries to Virginia 15, the Rife children, and $300 for damage to the Rife car.

Murphy is in Mansfield reformatory, serving a sentence for second-degree manslaughter, resulting from the accident.

According to reports at the time of the collision, the Murphy car headed west, made a wide turn on the curve atop the hill and smashed head-on into the Rife auto. Several occupants of the Murphy auto, including the driver, suffered injuries in the accident.

DUSTY MILLER Writes Patter

Jim Farley quotes Mrs. Roosevelt as saying to him once:
"Franklin finds it hard to relax with people who aren't his social equal." This is a hard thing to do with so many of the beloved "common man" all around you!

With a Cedarville schoolgirl in our house grandpa and grandma are beginning to realize that a youngster who goes only through the sixth grade knows quite a lot.

New Zealand has perfected a substitute for the atom bomb, but which is much cheaper. It won't be long until a pretty good bomb with two pair of pants will be on sale in most any drugstore.

Do you suppose the time will come when strikers in automobile plants, tired of walking out, will demand to ride out?

About the only new cars that can be seen are in city misused-car sales lots.

A bulletin from the American Medical Society lists the causes of heart failure, but they overlooked the most common one—pricing a used car.

Clarence Brown's town, Blanchester, is offering for swimming for life to the person who submits the best name for its new swimming pool. The condition the country has been around Blanchester this spring, whoever wins the prize will have to swim to go swimming.

So far nobody has argued that the atom bomb is as dangerous as the gun that isn't loaded.

Those muddled billboard babies seem to have solved the no-id problem, and they chose the right spring and summer to go to roost outdoors without a stitch.

the box when you open it.

The only thing that will bring on a depression, the head of the U. S. steel corporation says, is talking about it. That's the way it worked with the weather.

It's hard to believe, but some of us manage to spend rather pleasant evenings with the bea-name shows off the air.

My personal dread of the hearing first lady did is that it will be only six weeks until the radio stars are back.

With so many new soaps revolutionizing wash day the event hardly has time to settle down to getting suits out of the box until another revolution breaks out.

I overheard a farmer talking to another, saying: "It used to be on rainy days I could grease the harness, but nowadays I don't have any harness to grease!"

I can remember "way back when" foundation garments were called drawers.

Pity the poor moth! Science promises that his reign in the American closet is over. Well, that's one reign that's over anyhow!

Many a young man is turning this over in his mind: Teachers' pay has been hiked; it will probably never be reduced; why not go into teaching?

We should all run and get under the bed in our fright about what Russia is going to make to destroy us. There are no tennis racquets in Russia because they don't know how to make them!

riculture. Lunch of hamburgers

Corn Still Our Best Bet Tractors hummed night and day last week and a lot of corn was planted by weary, heavy-eyed farmers. But the rains again descended and at this writing, field work has again bogged down.

However, farmers have an ace in the hole in their power, machinery, which makes possible the plowing, seedbed fitting, and planting of a lot of acres in a short time. With a decent break in weather up to July 1 a fair acreage of corn will be planted.

Last week staff members of experiment station and college agriculture went into huddle and came up with the following recommendations.

Corn can be planted for grain up to June 25 and for silage up to July 1 with an even chance of getting a good crop. They agree that corn should be planted up to the limit of the late planting dates in preference to any other crop.

The importance of fertilizer in helping the growth of all late planted crops was emphasized.
On soil that carried heavy growth of timothy, 200 to 300 pounds of sulphate of ammonia per acre will help digest the heavy growth.

The fertilizer can be plowed down or applied as a side dressing up until it is knee high.

The prospective acreage of soybeans grows larger each day that corn planting is delayed. Profitable yields can be expected from plantings made as late as July 1.

Soybeans mature a crop about 100 days from date of planting and planting delays have less effect on yields than on corn. To reduce seed cost, many beans will be planted in rows this year.

Camp Clifton To Open June 23
Camp Clifton, the 4-H club camp on the little Miami river will open Monday, June 23 when senior club members will gather at Camp Madison, Union, and Greene counties will assemble for a week's outing.

Members 15 to 21 years will attend the camp, the purpose of which is to train counselors for county club members. A state supervisor, state 4-H supervisor, will be program director. Reservations with a $3.00 deposit should be sent to the county extension office.

Watch Strawberries for Insect Injury
Strawberries and celery growers are warned to keep watch of the plants to catch the first signs of damage by spotted bugs. These light yellow bugs live in masses of spittle on stems of the plants.

Spittle bugs feed by sucking sap from the plants so they can be killed only with contact poisons such as a 0.75 per cent DDT dust.

THE TRAGIC END OF A NATION

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 25:1-12.
MEMORY SELECTION—Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14:34.

The end of the road! Down, down, down went Judah in its sinful refusal to keep God's Word, and ultimately came the final day of reckoning. It always does! The catastrophe which had long been approaching had arrived at last.

The fall of a capital city, which carries with it the empire, is a world-shaking event. The fall of Rome shattered the world for a thousand years. The fall of Berlin and Tokyo are within the memory of all of us, and the results are seen in a disordered world.

The destruction of Jerusalem, which our lesson presents, was even more serious; for it was not only a national tragedy, but also one with deep religious significance.

The wicked king Jehoiakim was succeeded by his son Jehoiachin, a mere boy who reigned only three months. He gave way to Nebuchadnezzar, who appointed as his successor his uncle Zedekiah.

It is in the verses just preceding our lesson that we learn that Zedekiah turned against Babylon in an act of

I. Rebellion (v. 1).
Zedekiah ignored his oath of allegiance (II Chron. 36:13), for which he was condemned by Ezekiel as a traitor (Ezek. 17:13-19). Zedekiah has well been called the vanishing point in a diminishing line of kings.
It was an evil thing he did (II Kings 24:19), and one which showed his conceit, vanity and rashness.

True it was that he only followed what he had learned from his predecessors, but that is never a good excuse for a man foolishly to turn against God's will.

Observe that God was not just a disinterested spectator, and yet he had come to the place where he let Judah go down to its own awful doom. The worst thing that can happen to a man or a nation is to be let alone by God!

Zedekiah's act of folly quickly brought

II. Retribution (vv. 2-10).
Jeremiah urged Zedekiah to surrender (see Jer. 37, 38) in order to save Jerusalem and himself, but he refused, and the city was besieged.

The king's refusal to hear God's prophet and his turning to Egypt for help speak to us of the manner in which unrepentant sinners reject God's mercy and then seek help at the hopeless cisterns of this world (Jer. 2:13).

The king tried to flee, but was taken captive. Then came the siege of Jerusalem. For one and one-half years the enemy gradually closed in, while famine and distress grew space in the city. Jeremiah went through this entire period sharing his people's trouble. The book of Lamentations is the record of this eyewitness.

Sin does its terrible work. Even as it can take a great city and turn it into a plague spot marked by cruelty, suffering and death, even so it can bring forth its inevitable and unspeakable results in the life of the individual who persists in rejecting the voice of God.

Note also that the sin of Zedekiah brought quick judgment, not only on himself, but upon his innocent children (v. 7), and on many in the besieged city who were equally guilty of wrongdoing. It is again a picture of what sin does today in the homes and communities of our nation.

III. Removal (vv. 11, 12).
The fall of Jerusalem prepared the way for the closing scene of the immediate history of the nation as the people went into captivity. It also ended for the time being the history of the city that had once so proudly held a position of privilege and power, but was now brought down by its sin and rebellion against God.

We say rightly that history repeats itself. We see that any nation that lifts itself up in pride and forgets God will inevitably perish. We ask ourselves where our beloved country stands. As we consider its debauchery and drunkenness, its disregard of moral standards, its indifference to the things of God, we feel that instead of pointing a finger of scorn at Judah, we ought to be on our faces before God in penitence and shame.

Let us not assume that we hold a place of favor with God, which exempts us from the certainty of judgment. Israel was his chosen, and they still are, for his promises of ultimate blessing to them have never been withdrawn. But their sin brought certain punishment, and the same is true today not only of the nation but of the individual.

The Sunday school lessons will take up the history of Israel again at this point in April, 1948, when we consider the captivity and the partial return of the people to their land.

DURSCH-CHITTY

An improvised altar arranged before the windows in the living room provided the setting for the wedding of Miss Helen Elizabeth Dursch, Germantown, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Chitty, near Xenia, Saturday at 3:30 p. m.

Palms, baskets of summer flowers and white tapers in seven branch candelabra marked either side of the altar.

Thirty guests attended the wedding at which Rev. A. L. Scherry, pastor of the First Reformed Church, read the double ring service. A program of nuptial music was played on the piano by Mrs. Ralph Barkalow, Germantown, preceding the ceremony.

Mrs. Harry Campbell, former teacher associate of the bride in Washington, C. H. schools, was matron of honor and Mr. Ralph Barkalow, Germantown, served as best man.

The bride wore a pink summer gabardine suit styled with a cut-away jacket. She wore a headband of pink tulle and carried a bouquet of pink and white lilies, in which there was a white lace handkerchief from which pink rosebud streamers extended. Mrs. Campbell wore an aqua gabardine suit and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception at the Chitty home followed the service. Mrs. Chitty, the bride's mother, wore a brown crepe dress with white accessories and Mrs. Edward Dursch, step-mother of the bridegroom, wore a gray crepe suit with white accessories. Their corsages were fashioned of white carnations.

An ice course was served from a table centered with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by white tapers and bowls of flowers. A piece of wedding cake was cut and sent to the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chitty, Miami, Fla., who were unable to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Hugh Chitty, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Florence Barkalow, Xenia, last week college classmate of the bride, assisted at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Dursch will leave Saturday evening on a wedding trip and upon their return will reside in an apartment at 135½ East Second street Xenia.

Mrs. Dursch is a graduate of Xenia Central high school and Cedarville college and attended Ohio university. She is a member of Alpha Theta Tau sorority. She taught in the Washington C. H. schools four years and at McKinley school, Xenia, last year.

Mr. Dursch, son of Mr. Edward Dursch, Germantown, is a graduate of Germantown high school and attended McSweeney's Automotive-Mechanic school, Detroit. He served overseas with a cavalry division in World War II.

The seed corn situation for next year may be serious. Seed corn growers cannot plant corn in the rain, and seed may be scarce and of poor quality. Intelligent farmers will buy seed corn NOW, and store it at home, to be sure of good quality seed corn for next year. Seed carried over one year is just as good as new seed. Our treated seed corn will be practically free from damage by mice or weevil. As we do not have the room to carry over any seed corn, we are making it worth your while to buy your next years needs now, by closing out the present stock of all varieties listed below at a DRASTICALLY REDUCED PRICE.

CLARENCE J. BROWN Writes With a Buckeye In Congress

Member of Congress
Seventh Ohio District

At 6:00 p. m. on Wednesday of last week Director of Agriculture Anderson announced that sugar rationing for household, restaurant and hotel use would end at midnight that day. On Monday—three days earlier—he had advised the banking and currency committee of the house that sugar rationing could not be lifted at this time. On Wednesday afternoon, three hours before his ration lifting order was issued, he had requested the appropriations committee to continue funds for the payment of some eight hundred workers in the sugar rationing division of his department. Most members of congress are wondering if the action of the house rules committee on Wednesday afternoon in reporting out a bill to end sugar rationing—which would have been passed on Thursday—had anything to do with the secretary's quick change of position.

Most informed sources here expect Italy to go communist within four to five months as a result of the recent peace treaty which will require American troops to withdraw from that country by September. With Italy communist, Russia and her communist allies will control the Mediterranean, and the Truman program of military aid to Greece and Turkey will mean but little.

The house of representatives spent three days last week in debate on the Mundt bill to authorize continuance of the state department's propaganda activities in foreign countries by radio, books, art etc. This program, known as "The Voice of America," costing over thirty million dollars a year, has been strongly criticized by many members of congress. The charge has been made that the program is under the control of a group of radicals, many of whom are aliens, and does not truly represent the American way of life. While opposed by a majority of the Republicans in the house, there is a strong possibility a coalition made up of the solid Democratic minority and fifty or sixty Republicans of international leanings may have sufficient strength to pass the measure.

A senate subcommittee is making a rather thorough investigation of the recent Kansas City election scandal. In the Democratic primaries last summer President Truman and his friends of the "underdog machine" defeated Roger Slaughter, anti-New Deal congressman, and nominated Enos Axtell, the president's choice. Later charge of fraud were made, and the department of justice was asked to investigate. The justice department reported no fraud could be found. However, a Kansas City newspaper and the local prosecuting attorney quickly turned up all sorts of fraud evidence and forty-eight indictments were returned. Two weeks ago a court house safe was blown and the ballots and other evidence in the case stolen. Now the senate is endeavoring to learn whether Attorney General Clark and his department of justice were derelict in their duties. There is considerable talk that the committee investigation may result in Clark's resignation, and perhaps even his impeachment—all of which does President Truman no good.

There is a strong likelihood legislation now before the congress to give Spanish-American War veterans, Civil War veterans, Civil War veterans, and their widows a twenty per cent increase in pension allowances will be enacted at this session of congress. Judge Edward Matthias of the Ohio supreme court, national commander of the Spanish-American War veterans, was in Washington last week and appeared before congressional committees in favor of the measure.

The ways and means committee of the house has reported a bill to freeze social security taxes at one per cent on the employer and one per cent on the employee for two more years, beginning January 1, next. The bill will undoubtedly be enacted, and otherwise the social security tax rates would automatically jump to two and one-half per cent on the employer and two and one-half per cent on the employee—or to a total of five per cent, in 1948.

The civil service commission has announced that one forty-two thousand government workers who should be given a complete and thorough loyalty check by the security officials, and has requested the appropriation of funds for that purpose. Just think—forty-two thousand federal employees whose loyalty to their government is in question—and we talk about fighting communism overseas.

Meat prices have been jumping higher day by day for the past two or three weeks. While the department of agriculture has issued an official denial, there seems to be plenty of evidence that the increase in prices has come about because of heavy meat buying in this country by representatives of foreign countries. We will give you one guess who furnished the money these foreign agents are using to make these meat purchases.

Washington political circles are all agog over the first of a series of articles in a national magazine by James A. Farley, former Democrat, national committee chairman and postmaster general.

al. Farley, who is known as the man who made Roosevelt President, tells how he was dropped by F. D. R. because he refused to go along with the Roosevelt attempt to purge Democratic representatives and senators who refused to vote for legislation the president wanted, and his fear that Farley might become a candidate for president, himself. The articles are very much worth reading.

Mrs. Stewart is a graduate of Beaver Creek high school and attended Cedarville college. Mr. Stewart resumed his teaching duties on the Beaver Creek faculty recently after serving in the armed forces three and a half years. He was stationed in the European area two and a half years.

Library Board Delays Action

GAS HOUSE-HEATING

The natural gas supply situation for next winter is still serious and doubtful. The rapid expansion of industrial uses of gas during the war years, and the strong demand for manufactured goods, and the growing popularity of automatic gas heating for homes—these would all be reason enough for the natural gas shortage. But the critical shortage of pipe, meters, compressors and other equipment and of skilled technicians have made it impossible to keep up with demand.

Improvement Program Delayed by Shortages

Our suppliers are doing all in their power to speed their extensive expansion program and put in operation additional facilities now under construction. But because building new pipelines does take time and materials and manpower, we must ask the continued patience of customers who would like to convert from other fuels to gas heating.

Sale of gas heating equipment to those now having other forms of heating cannot be resumed until gas supplies delivered to this area are adequate for all.

Only the wholehearted cooperation of consumers who want to convert to gas heat, and of gas space heating dealers, can protect the service to existing customers. It looks now as if it might be another 15 to 18 months before increased gas transmission facilities will be adequate to correct the shortage experienced last winter.

Few exceptions to "No-change-over" policy

Our temporary policy restricting change-over from other heating fuels to gas has been cleared with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio. In accordance with government policy, exceptions are:

1. Cases where there is satisfactory evidence of unusual hardship involving permanent disability or infirmity. 2. Newly constructed veterans' housing with heating equipment exclusively designed for gas is eligible for gas heating, provided proper application is cleared with the Company. 3. Worn-out gas heating equipment in existing buildings may be replaced provided the gas burning capacity is not increased.

ATTENTION, All Gas Space Heating Dealers

Your continued cooperation will help protect the community against the danger of insufficient gas service for existing consumers. It will reduce the danger of widespread unemployment that might result from over extension of the use of the present supply of natural gas for next winter.

The Company at all times considers as its first obligation the maintenance of adequate service to all present consumers. Probable government allocation of natural gas next winter is a factor that must be considered.
